

Tao - What do you notice about your classmates?

Find Someone Activity - For this activity, make a connection of 3 boxes to complete your search. Use the board below to look carefully at your classmates, ask a few questions, and find a classmate who has something special for you to notice! Write your classmate's name in the box. Keep searching until you find three in a row...or fill the board!

T	A	O
Find someone who has blue eyes. _____	Find someone who likes pizza.. _____	Find someone who sings. _____
Find someone who plays soccer. _____	Find someone who laughs at something you think is funny. _____	Find someone who can play the piano. _____
Find someone who plays football. _____	Find someone who likes something that you like.. _____	Find someone who wears glasses. _____

After you read Tao, find a partner to talk to about what is the moral of the story in Tao. A moral is the lesson the reader should learn or take away from the story. Write the moral of the story here in your own words::

Tao - Compare and Contrast Characters

Compare and Contrast the characters of Tao, the elephant, to the character of the mouse. How does each character feel throughout the story based on clues from the illustrations, words in the story, and video. Use the graphic organizer to record what you find.

Tao, the Elephant

The Mouse

